Ladies Night On The Gridiron

Mrs. Becky Hudson, No. 82, and Mrs. Dot Davidson, No. 63 meet with friendly P-TA rivals to talk about their forthcoming game. Representing Vera are Mrs. Mary Ferguson, No. 25, Mrs. Margie Doss, No. 62, and Mrs. Shirley O'Brien, No. 34. Small football fans gathered round, too, to check on uniforms and touchdown strategy before the Ladies' Football Game, Nov. 16 at 7:30 p.m. They included Shelley and Beverly Davidson, Timmy and Glenn Doss, and Larry Ferguson. The ladies' will play 8 minute quarters, and one onlooker remarked, "This game is likely to be a little more strenuous than ball." Coach Walter Carson, of AHS, is assisting both teams in getting ready for the event.

Rebels Trounce Bluestone 19-6

The Appomattox High School Rebels picked up their seventh win of the season, last Friday night, downing the Bluestone Barons 19-6. It was the third loss for the Barons.

After being stymied for two quarters Coach Gordon Bragg's Rebels began to gamble. Early in the third quarter the Rebels marched 65 yards for the first score of the night. The last 12 yards was covered by a pass from Jaes Whitehead to Dickie Brilliantly offensively as Jamerson, failed.

At the beginning of the 4th quarter the Rebels were at it again. With O. H. Jamerson and John Goin doing most of the hauling, the determined Rebels stormed 55 yards for their second touchdown. Jamerson carried the last two yards on an off tackle slant. Again the extra point, this time by Torrence, failed. Moments later, Buddy Wilcox picked a Burnett pass out of the air, on the Baron 45 yard line and scampered all the way to "pay dirt." This time the extra point attempt was good as Jamerson rambed over guard, and Appomattox led 19-0.

Late in the 4th quarter, Bluestone come back with their only serious threat of the night. Recovering a fumble on the Appomattox 45 yard line, the Barons quickly moved within scoring range. With 3rd down and 7 yards to go on the 7 yard line, H. J. Newcomb cracked off tackle for their first and only score of the night. The extra point attempt failed.

The Rebels proved the ball extremely well all night, but six fumbles and one intercepted pass kept the score close. Both G. H. Jamerson and John Goin shone brilliantly offensively as Jamerson had one of his finest nights.

On defense the Rebels played inspired ball, holding Bluestone to a mere 5 first downs. Some of the standouts were Bill Bryant, Jimmy Martin, Buddy Wilcox, Freddie Carter, Wayne Phelps and Phillip Locado.

This Friday night, ends their 1962 season as they trance to Altavista to meet the Colonels. Follow your team!

Trial Date Set

January 3 at 10 a.m. is the date set by Judge Joel Flood for the trial of C. Lewis McDearmon, Appomattox, after a conference with both prosecuting and defense attorneys on Sat., Nov. 3. J. Segar Gravatt, Blackstone, has joined William Rosenberger as defense counsel.

The seven man Grand Jury failed to hear testimony regarding the death of Morton Ferguson, returned an indictment against McDearmon about one hour and a half after it retired from the courtroom following a hearing before Judge Flood.

The only witness heard by the Grand Jury was State Police Lt. L. E. Thomas.

Bloodmobile Visits County Nov. 30

The Red Cross Bloodmobile is due to visit Appomattox on Friday, Nov. 30, according to an announcement from Jim Cobb, county chairman for the Red Cross blood program. Hours will be from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. You are urged to give blood to meet this county's quota.

184 pints of blood are needed to make our count "100 per cent", stated Donald Bowles, an administrator for the Red Cross Appalachian Blood Program, who was in town making plans for the annual visit.

1,909 Voters Cast Ballots Tuesday

Congressman Watkins Abbitt, of Appomattox, reported by telephone late on election night that Appomattox County had an unusually good turnout of voters on Tuesday. With all but the Chestwood precinct reporting, the count stood at 1,867 ballots cast.

Only three write - in votes for S. W. Tucker, Negro attorney from Emporia, were noted, and the three state constitutional amendments passed by an overwhelming majority, Abbitt reported.

Abbitt was unopposed for another two year term as 4th District Representative in the U. S. House of Representatives.

A later check made it, 1,909 votes with Cheatwood included. Total vote for Abbitt was 1896.

Schools Observe Book And Education Week, Nov. 11-17

Book Fairs, P-TA Programs Mark Week's Program

American Education Week and National Book Week begin Sunday. For Appomattox County the combination of the two "Weeks" will result in a combined program of PTA meetings, book fairs, and invitations by all schools in the county to "come in and look around."

Two - fold purpose, of course, is to emphasize the importance of books in education, and the importance of good schooling for every boy and girl in the county.

Book Fair

A gay clown is one motif being used to announce to Appomattox Elementary School children that the annual BOOK FAIR is almost here.

Approximately 450 volumes ranging from picture story books to the classics will be on display in the local school on Tues. and Wed., Nov. 13 and 14.

After looking over the books on these two days, each pupil may record his favorites on a special order sheet which parents can use as a check list for purchasing books on Thurs. night, Nov. 15, during the Elementary PTA meeting.

The display books are on loan from the Educational Division of Scholastic Magazine, and are priced from 50 cents to $4.95.

Mrs. Marvin Herncall, PTA Library Chairman, has announced that the school will receive a 20 per cent commission for each book sold. Many Crockett and Newberry prize winners will be on display, plus other books suitable for use as Christmas presents.

Book Week Program at PTA

Also on Thursday evening a BOOK WEEK PROGRAM will be presented in the Elementary School Auditorium by each grade.

Mother Goose rhymes will come to life as 1st and 2nd graders act out such favorites as the Three Bears, Little Miss Muffet, Jack and Jill, Pease Porridge Hot, and To Market, To Market.

Third graders will present Five Chinese Brothers by Claire Huchet Bishop. Heidi by Johanna Spyr, and Book Houses, by Annie Pelows Johnson.

The Fourth grades will dramatize A Prayer for a Child by Rachel Field, and Bird Girl — Sacajawea, by Fora Warren Seymour.

Johnny Appleseed, by Rosemary and Stephen Benet, will be presented by the 5th grade, plus Baum's Wizard of Oz.

The Cave Twins by Lucy Fitch Perkins will be a 6th grade choice, and the 7th Grades will present Robinson Crusoe by Defoe and Nichels and Dimes, a biography of F. W. Woolworth.

Pamplin

A Book Fair is also scheduled for the Pamplin Elementary School. Mrs. Stuart Farrar is in charge. Mrs. Ruby Atkins is also planning a program for the PTA meeting, Tues., Nov. 20.

Students will be making bookmarks, and will be listing favorite books for possible purchase by their parents.

Spout Spring

The 58 pupils of Spout Spring school are invited to bring parents to school on Tues. night, Nov. 20 for a program. "The Months of Story Books," according to Miss Margaret Moon, an instructor there.

Vera

A program of Mother Goose rhymes written by Mrs. A. W.

Hurray For Books!

Students and teachers gather around to talk about National Book Week, running from Nov. 11-17. Seated at the library table are Susan Williamson and Kathryn Sharp. Standing are Dickie Lawson, Mrs. Marvin Herncall, Jack Layne, and Mrs. Henry Beard, Elementary School librarian. Mrs. Herncall is this year's Book Fair chairman.

Christmas Seal Campaign Opens November 13

More than 13,000 tuberculosis patients are now under medical supervision by local health departments in Virginia, Governor Albertis S. Harrison, Jr., noted recently, and the number of new cases being reported is increasing. "Tuberculosis continues to be a major communicable disease problem in the Commonwealth," the Governor pointed out, "and we need to be generous in the support of efforts to combat this disease.

"I urge the people of Virginia to participate in the 1962 Christmas Seal Campaign of their local tuberculosis association which opens November 13, to provide funds for the elimination of this scourge," Governor Harrison said.

Wine Tax Share Totals $1,401.73

Appomattox County Treasurer Garland Plunkett reported that the county's share of the state wine tax for the year ended June 30 has been received, amounting to $1,401.73.

The distribution is made on population basis, slightly more than 15 cent per person, as provided by law. The localities get two - thirds of the tax, the state the remainder. The tax amounts to 15 cent per gallon.

A total of $697,846 is being distributed to the counties and cities throughout the state.

Banks Close Mon.

Both banks and all U. S. Government offices in Appomattox will observe Veterans Day Monday. Readers are advised that the banks will be closed all day.

Amendments Are Approved Here

With the heavy-voting Courthouse district giving its support, the controversial bond referendum amendment passed in Appomattox County, 909 to 470.

Incumbent Democratic Congressman Watkins M. Abbitt, unopposed in the Fourth District, received 1896 votes in Appomattox County. S. W. Tucker, of Emporia, Negro attorney for the NAACP in the school controversy, received 11 write-in votes.

The voter registration amendment was passed, 1198 votes to 283, and the minority legislative amendment passed, 1252 to 196.

A total of 1914 ballots was cast in 10 precincts.

County Council Meets Tuesday

Officers of the County's 4 4H Clubs and 4-H Club leaders are urged to attend the 4-H County Council meeting to be held on Tuesday, November 13 at 7:30 p.m. at the Appomattox Elementary School. Training will be given the 4-H club officers in order to help them do a more effective job. Miss Margaret Gulley, Associate State 4-H Club Agent, will explain the duties and functions of an Adult 4-H Leader in working with a community 4-H Club.

4-H Presidents will be trained by Mrs. Clark Lewis, President of the Oakville Home Demonstration Club; vice presidents by Mr. Bailey Wilkins, County Agent Amherst County; secretaries and reporters by Mrs. Millard Stimpson, news reporter with the Times Virginian; and song leaders by Miss Frankie McKinney and Mr. Herbie Pulliam, both of whom are active in musical activities in the county.

Parents are invited to stay and participate in the meeting.

Last Two Days To Order Xmas Cards From Club

Jr. Woman's Club members are taking the last of their orders for Christmas cards. These attractive cards, made in the Occupational Therapy Workshop of the Va. Society for Crippled Children and Adults, are sold for the benefit of crippled children in Virginia.

You are asked to call Mrs. Bob Montgomery, Ways and Means Chairman at 352-6071, or Mrs. W. E. Chenault, club president at 352-2781, if you have not already been given the opportunity to order cards for your business or family needs.

Chairman Lorraine Montgomery says that you may order any number of cards for a donation in any amount.

A part of the proceeds will send an Appomattox County child to Camp Easter Seal. The remainder will go for state-wide needs of crippled children.

Trench Silo Saves Money

George Perdue, at right dairyman of Appomattox County, reports that his trench silo saves time and money. Concrete flooring and a plastic covering keeps silage dry and easy to load. The silo cost about $200, a very moderate sum as compared with higher priced types. County Agent Jim Smith took silage samples to send to VPI for laboratory analysis. This service is free to any county farmer who requests it. "Scientific help and farmer's, hard work produces good herds and better profits all the way around," said Smith.
